

THE Belt Creek Omnium

Saturday May 7th, 2011

Race sanctioned by USA Cycling USCF permit pending
Chief Referee: Ron Nelson

2 Stage Single Day Event

The Courses:

The TT course: (11.1 miles) Start will be from the staging area, make a U turn, head east out of town, turn around ¼ mile after the climb. Finish will be above staging area after a slight rise. Riders will go off in reverse order of registration, last to register first to ride.

The RR course: The route follows a smooth, scenic, lightly traveled road in the Highwood area. Cat 1/2, 3 & Master A racers will ride to the turnaround at the outside of Fort Benton (20 Miles) all other groups will turn around at a mid point turnaround (9 Miles) all riders will continue past the finish line to a second turnaround at McKinnor Rd (14 miles past start line). All groups will finish at the same finish line. Race course has a mixture of hills, as well as scenic views. Pavement is in great shape throughout the course with the exception of a short gravel section that will be traversed twice. The course will be open to vehicular traffic and the centerline rule will be enforced at all times, this includes the finish.

Racers will complete a total distance of 47 to 65 miles. Racers who are in the main groups may ride more than two abreast, but will remain to the right of the centerline at all times. Racers who are not in the main groups or otherwise out-of-contention will ride as far to the right hand side of the road as possible.
